Sharon Furr

April 2016 and May 2016

Oh my gosh, so much has been going on.....where do I begin?

First, this weather has been wonderful, I hope everybody has been getting their fertilizer out and fields drilled in, if not, too late now! Especially for those of you reading this in May!

Remember you can always go to our website www.scangus.org and read the article as they are happening, you don't have to wait!

Second, I hope your spring calves have come without much ado and that your mothers and babies are maintaining and gaining on all this wonderful lush grass. Seems like it went from cold, and the fields looking a drab faint greenie brownish, to warm and green, green, green. The trees began putting on leaves, I'm noticing Raggedy Robbins blooming, which I love so much, tiny baby violets in every color, thrift just covering the ground, yellow Jasmin and purple Wisteria just hanging everywhere in full bloom, the Dogwoods and Judas tress overlapping with their colorful story to tell, the azaleas bursting in all their glory, it's breathtaking really the canvas, as it reveals itself to us in a different light each and every day, every color one can ever imagine, just overwhelming.

I'm overwhelmed with all of His glory, and color, and wonder, and masterpieces, created new each day just for me. Just for me to marvel in. Just for me to enjoy in. Just for me to be surprised in, each new day. I hope you are as well.

We hosted our 45th Annual SCAA Banquet and Futurity Sale on March 18th and 19th and if you missed it, boys and howdy you missed out on a great night, with great friends, honoring great Angus Producers, eating great steaks, and an awesome day of selling with a great set of beautiful Angus girls! If you'd like to see all the highlights from the banquet and sale, please go to our website at www.scangus.org and click on the Futurity tab.

Highlights from the Banquet:

Hall of Fame Inductee
